The pie chart below shows how divided BD supporters are in terms of sports.

Supportes of BD

Chess
5.0%
Badminton
15.0%

Football
20.0%

Cricket
60.0%
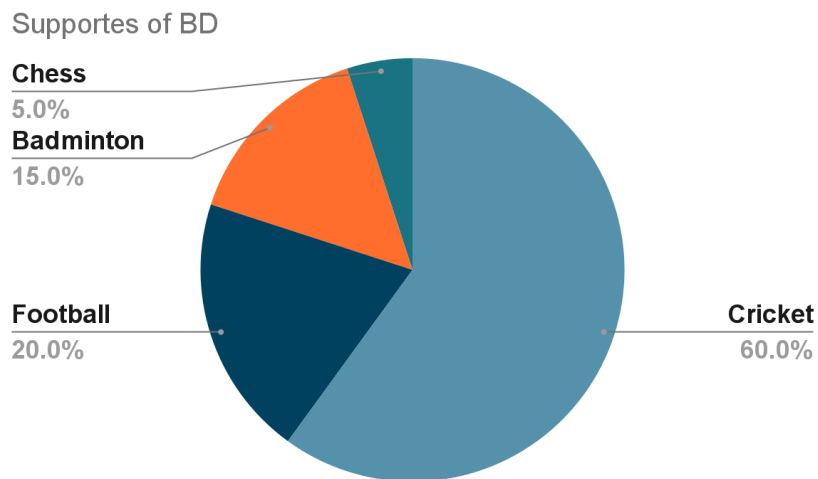

The Pie-chart

The given chart represents/illustrates/shows the percentage of supporters of different games of Bangladesh, and it is divided in four/five categories : X,Y,Z.

According to the chart/ at a glance, it is seen that (part) contributes/holds/partakes the highest percentage of (Topic) and it is/which is (Rate) . On the other hand/On the contrary, (part) accounts for/keeps the lowest percentage which is/and it is (Rate).

/Analyzing the chart, we can see that the highest percentage of (Topic) is (Part) and it is/which is (Rate) . On the other hand/On the contrary, the lowest percentage is (part) which is/and it is (Rate).

Moreover/However, the chart also shows/represents/describes other information. Such as in terms of (part) figure is (Rate). Next, in terms of (part) which is (rate). Then, the rest of the share is (part) and it is/which is/being (Rate) . Additionally, the figure of X and Y is relatively similar and their difference is only (number). In the categories of the "X" and "Y", these are "X" and "Y" respectively.

Overall, it can be said/we can say that this chart shows/portrays the realistic picture/scenario of (topic) by describing X being the most popular and Y being the least.